Did u guys get the emails I sent you last week? I don't think I saw a reply from anyone. Makes me think they didn't go thru :(

I'll be back in Dallas tomorrow night and in the office Thursday. When are you all free to have a call with Gary about next steps? I have surgery in the 19th. Will need a couple of recovery days before the call.

Gracias Alan! I don't know what other kindda map I need to make from these points that the other map you emailed would have. Brandi will let me know if she needs something different.
